Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 1, 3-6, 11, 12, 15, 19-21, 30, 34-36, 41, 42, 45, 47-49, and 51-53 are allowed.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

Regarding independent claims 1, 11, 15, 30, and 41, the prior art (e.g. U.S. Patent No. 6,178,432 to Cook et al., "Wireless Markup Language Specification") teaches sending, from a server to a client device, a plurality of display state definitions that define a plurality of instantiations of a user interface for display at the client device, whereby at least one of said instantiations is defined by two or more display state definitions, and whereby each display state definition comprises one or more display cell definitions that define display cells (i.e. widgets) for display in one or more instantiations, the display cell definitions comprising state transition rules specifying a next user interface display state (i.e. instantiation) to transition to in response to user interaction with a corresponding display cell. The prior art, however, does not teach display state definitions that are associated with discrete values of a common display state variable, said variable being set in response to user interaction with a display cell, and whereby such display state variables are examined to determine the next display state, as is claimed.

Since claims 3-6 and 45 depend from claim 1, and thereby include all of the limitations of claim 1, claims 3-6 and 45 are considered allowable for the reasons in which claim 1 is allowed.

Since claim 12 depends from claim 11, and thereby includes all of the limitations of claim 11, claim 12 is considered allowable for the reasons in which claim 11 is allowed.

Since claims 19- 21 and 47-49 depend from claim 15, and thereby include all of the limitations of claim 15, claims 19-21 and 47-49 are considered allowable for the reasons in which claim 15 is allowed.

Since claims 34-36 and 51-53 depend from claim 30, and thereby include all of the limitations of claim 30, claims 34-36 and 51-53 are considered allowable for the reasons in which claim 30 is allowed.

Since claim 42 depends from claim 41, and thereby includes all of the limitations of claim 41, claim 42 is considered allowable for the reasons in which claim 41 is allowed.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
